Clash Procedures:

- Do not leave an event (track or field) without the express consent of the officials i.e. you must be checked out, and in. Field event officials and marshals will be in constant touch to ensure no-one misses an event or is disadvantaged.
- Inform official/s of the clash and wait for release. Return immediately once the other commitment is finalised.
- Carnival officials will only be responsible for competitors who follow the procedures. Competitors who leave an event without permission, or do not return immediately when their clashing event is finalised, will be deemed to be absent.
- High jump competitors must rejoin the competition at the current height. The bar will not be lowered for returning competitors.
